

Paddle Tennis Competition of the International Input-Output Association Lisbon, 15 and 18 July 2014

In complement to the 22nd IIOA Conference there will be a paddle tennis competition, at a sports center within walking distance from the conference venue. The competition will take place on Tuesday and Friday, July 15 and 18, starting at 7pm. The winning team will be awarded a symbolic prize.

Paddle tennis is a light and fun sport with simple rules. Even if you have no prior experience you will learn quickly. The competition is open to every conference participant and accompanying person. You only need to bring comfortable clothes and footwear, the organization will provide the paddles and the tennis balls.

To apply send an email to paddle.iioa@gmail.com until June 27. You can apply as a team, indicating the names of both players, or as an individual, in which case the organization will take care of team matching.

We will communicate the final calendar of matches shortly before the conference. For any further information about the competition during the conference, please ask at the reception desk.

We look forward to meeting you Lisbon!
